

ABSTRACT

An Analysis of Yoon Ji-'Woo's Personality in Kim Ji-'Min's Korean Drama My Name

Kezia Vania Claresta, Universitas Ma Chung;

Advisors: Lilis Lestari Wilujeng S.S., M.Hum. & Daniel Ginting

This research is a literary study on a Korean drama entitled My Name. The objectives of the study are to identify Yoon Ji-'Woo's personality and the six concepts of Alfred Adler's personality reflected in the Korean drama My Name. The research uses a Korean drama as the object of the study. Using a qualitative approach, the researcher conducted an analysis by watching the Korean drama several times, taking notes of the important conversations and other relevant literary elements between the characters from the Korean drama. The result of the study shows the personality of Yoon Ji-'Woo in the Korean drama My Name and also how the personality reflects the six concepts of personality by Alfred Adler to emphasize Yoon Ji-'Woo's personality as the main character in the Korean drama My Name.

Keywords: Korean drama, personality, Alfred 'Adler's six concepts of personality theory, main character