

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusion

The writer found the result personalities of Lee Joon Young depicted in the series are cheerful, introvert, and problematic. As the cheerful person, Lee Joon Young like to share happiness with his parents, enjoy his moments by join a baseball camp with his friends and his father, and would appreciate someone around him like giving smile to his mom and said thank you to No Eul to take care of Lee Joon Young. Lee Joon Young also an introvert person, he likes to do reflection and daydreaming about something that already happen to him, he always being alone because he does not like crowded, and he is not talking too much when someone talk to him he just said “yes”. He is also problematic person by stole snack from internet café to get attention from his parents, he also makes Hae Kang confused and uncomfortable about what Lee Joon Young did since he saw Lee Joon Young comes out from the internet café in the morning.

The writer found conflicts that Lee Joon Young experienced in this series. Lee Joon Young’s parents, his classmates (Hae Kang and No Eul), and Da Kyung are characters who has conflict with Lee Joon Young. The conflict with his parents that included his mom and his father. The conflict with his mom is because his mom wants to protect to Lee Joon Young. Lee Joon Young thinks that his mom never understands him than his father. Yet, Lee Joon Young gets slapped by his father because his father is not Lee Joon Young’s side while he is debated with Da Kyung. Lee Joon Young also found his father is on his mom’s house again and it is makes Lee Joon Young disappointed because they are divorced they do not need to meet each other again, but they still connected. Conflict with his two classmates are when Lee Joon Young gapped by No Eul because he stolen his classmates' stuff and No Eul want to Lee Joon Young to said the truth about what he did, conflict with Hae Kang is they are fight in the school until Hae Kang got treatment in the hospital. Conflict with Da Kyung is when Jenny cried in Lee Joon Young's room and Lee Joon Young also with Jenny, then Da Kyung blamed to Lee Joon Young that he is hit Jenny, but he did not hit Jenny and said that Jenny is felt when she is alone. Da Kyung blamed to Lee Joon Young because she knew that Lee Joon Young is problematic.

The writer using psychoanalysis theory to find out main character personality related to psychoanalysis aspect of personality and main character face conflicts by using defense mechanism. Lee Joon Young as cheerful person he is related to The Id on the three sign of cheerful, because as a teenager he wants to be a happy like the other teenager like him. Lee Joon Young as introvert person he is related to three levels of mind (Conscious, Preconscious, and Unconscious) on the first sign, because mostly he is thinking about the pain that his father made. The Id on the second sign, because he likes to being alone. The last is Superego on the third sign, because Lee Joon Young feels uncomfortable with Da Kyung by not talking too much to them. He still gives response if it is needed. Lee Joon Young as problematic person is related to Id and consciousness. The id is at the first sign and at the second sign, because he needs his attention by having a bad behavior, he got his attention from his parents and his classmate, Hae Kang. Conscious is on the third sign, because Lee Joon Young react to Hae Kang by hit Hae Kang because Lee Joon Young remember about what he did on internet café and he feels annoyed with Hae Kang.

Lee Joon Young using defense mechanism to face his conflict, the conflict with his parents are using displacement and regression, because Lee Joon Young after knew that he feels disappointed and he doing something unacceptable to relieve his mind. Reaction Formation, is used by Lee Joon Young to face his mom because Lee Joon Young to hide his feeling to meet his father he is lied to his mom that he is won't attend the party, and to face his father Lee Joon Young use Regression to show his disappointment to his father because his father slapped his face. Lee Joon Young face conflict with Da Kyung is using Rationalization to explain what happened to Jenny. With his classmates which are Hae Kang and No eul. Lee Joon Young use Denial to face No Eul, because he prevent the reality to be honest about what he did in the class and to face Hae Kang, he use Reaction Formation to hide his problematic behavior to his schoolmates.

5.2 Suggestion

In the end of this thesis, the writer would give suggestions as follows:

1. The world of the Married is a great drama series which not only media of entertain, but it can be analyzed with other perspective and theories.
2. The readers also use this thesis as the reference to improve understanding about psychoanalysis for the future research or teaching reference.