

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Marriage is important for a better future to create a family goal. It is a permanent bond between a man and a woman who become husband and wife until they die. People nowadays have considered marriage to be less important and paltry due to several problems or conditions that make them decide to do a “divorce.” Stritof (2020) stated that 40% of married couples are impacted by infidelity. There are four reasons behind people who cheat such as of unhappy or unsatisfied life of marriage, boredom, lack of commitment, and losing sexual appetite.

The writer’s objectives writing this creative writing project short story “Between Marriage and Betrayal are to raise awareness regarding divorce and infidelity issue, also related to mental health awareness. Dr Amoolya Seth states that stressful events after marriage ends with mental problems like anxiety, depression, suicidal tendencies, the use of drugs, and drinking alcoholic beverages. By using intrinsic elements of short story which are theme, setting, characters and characterization, plot, point of view, and symbolism then choosing studies on earlier works from Fifty Shades Freed Movie in 2018 and Gone Girl novel by Gillian Flynn in 2012, it helps the writer as the guidance to create this short story “Between Marriage and Betrayal”.

The writer has a very limited time which is only two months to finish this short story “Between Marriage and Betrayal”. The writing process happens after conducting the Seminar Proposal. By using the Gone Girl novel by Gillian Flynn as the guidance and create the outline as suggested by Mr. Dono Sunardi after the first consultation of the short story, it helps the writer to create the short story keep coherent with the outline and does not deviate from the beginning until the end. However, during the writing process the writer faced some difficulties. Changing the plot, grammar uses and choice of words, thinking the ending of the story, lack of concentration, and deleting the unnecessary part from the short story were the problems faced by the writer. By consulting with both advisors, brainstorming ideas, and asking for some help and advice from a friend could be the solution to problems during the completion of this short story project.

5.2 Suggestion

After finishing all the previous chapters from chapter one until chapter four and also finish making the short story “Between Marriage and Betrayal”, the writer has some ideas to write down the suggestion for readers who wants to take creative writing as the final project to graduate from Universitas Ma Chung. The first suggestion is finding potential advisors that are related to your field in thesis. As for the example, when you take creative writing project just like the writer did, find the advisors who teaches in the related field. Always mark your progress report until the end of consultation. The second suggestion for the readers is do not hesitate to ask a favor of help from your seniors (or perhaps graduates) when you feel stuck, especially when it comes to writing the creative writing proposal. Do not be like the writer because when she got stuck, she used to just abandon her task and it became one of the obstacles and did not consult with the advisors. Because if it happens, it will waste your time and energy too. The last suggestion for the readers is related to the readers who want to choose to create short story as the final project to graduate from Universitas Ma Chung. It will be better if you set your own target from the beginning until the Thesis Exam, thus it will help you graduate as soon as possible. Furthermore, find the related literatures as many as you can and do not forget to read it first before using the theories in your project. Understanding the content of the related literatures and the theories that you choose is important, especially when being asked by the advisors and even the examiner.
